Together We Make A Difference

We all have a role to play when it comes to supporting good digital citizenship in our schools every day.

10 Actions Parents Can Take

1. Be Informed About and Model Good Digital Citizenship.

2. Incorporate Digital Citizenship Discussions in Family Time.

3. Set Expectations for Good Digital Citizenship in Your Home.

4. Be Aware of What Your Children are Doing, What Websites and Apps They Are Using and Who They Are Talking To Online.

5. Use Online Media and Technology with Your Children, and Use Teachable Moments to Discuss Positive Digital Choices.

6. Set Reasonable Limits on Technology Use for Your Child with Regard to Appropriate Amounts of Screen Time.

7. Model Good Online and Social Media Behavior for Your Children and Invite Them to Ask Questions.

8. Work with Your Child's School to Create Opportunities to Discuss and Teach Digital Citizenship as a Community.

9. Make Sure Your Children Understand That It Is Safe to Come to You with Questions and Concerns About the Online World.

10. Talk to Your Kids About Positive and Negative Media Messages, and How to Tell The Difference Between Good and Bad Role Models.
